Beautiful Wedding at St. John's at Noon Today.

PHILLIPS-TOWNSEND

MISS TAYLOR WILL BE THE BRIDE OF LIEUT. GHERARDI.

Ceremony at Chevy Chase Late This Afternoon-Personal Notes

A very beautiful wedding took place at noon today at St. John's Church, when Miss Annette Pell Townsend became the wife of Mr. Marshall A. Phillips, jr., a member of a well-known Baltimore family, but now a resident of Philadelphia. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith performed the ceremony and the church where so many notable and similar ceremonies has taken place was thronged by the friends of the couple. Baltimore relatives and acquaintances of the bridegroom were almost as rumerous as the contingent which represented the social strength of the capital in these first days of June. The bride's attendants were Miss Postelthwaite, maid of honor; Miss Julie Marguerite Phillips of Baltimore, Miss Grace Bell, Miss Louise Parker, Miss Matilde Townsend and Miss Emily Coster of New York, a cousin of the bride. The ushers, who seated the guests and afterward led the march to the altar, were Mr. Ed. Townsend, Mr. Troth and Mr. Bucke Rhoads of Philadelphia; Mr. Latrobe Cogswell and Mr. Jas. C. Schenck of Baltimore, and Mr. Shields Gurley. Mr. Arme Brown of Philadelphia was best man.
The bride, whose formal entrance into society took place only a short time ago, looked her prettiest in the daintiest of bridal robes made of chiffon cloth trimmed with real lace and seed pearls. Her tulle veil was held by a wreath of orange blos-soms and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The brides-maids were prettily dressed in white voile, with pink girdles and large pink flower-trimmed hats. They carried bouquets of June roses tied with gauze ribbons.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas Gerry Townsend, on 18th street, at which the bridal party was joined by the personal friends of the family from this city and from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips started this afternoon for a honeymoon trip and will take up their residence later in the vicinity of Philadelphia, in which city Mr. Phillips now makes his home.

Mrs. Charles H. Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pell of Tuxedo, were here for the wedding. A severe attack of tonsilitis from which, happily, the bride recovered during the past week, has kept her from attendance at the numerous social events marking the past fortnight.

The marriage of Miss Neville Simms Taylor to Lieut. Walter Rockwell Gherardi, U. S.N., will occur this afternoon at 4 o'clock at All Saints' Church, Chevy Chase, and will be followed by a reception at the home of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Taylor on Lenox avenue. Lieut Gherardi is the son of the late Rear Admiral Bancroft Gherardi. He has already received signal distinction, and has already received signal distinction, and has been awarded gold medals for heroism in the saving of human life on four occasions. Miss Emily Neville Taylor of Troy, cousin of the bride, and daughter of Major Morgan Taylor, U. S. A., Miss Mildred Merrick. Miss Randolph, Miss Rose Douglas Wallach and Miss Janet Simms of Philadelphia will be bridesmaids. Lieutenant Henry V. Butler will be best man and Henry V. Butler will be best man, and Lieut. Powers Symington, Edward Howe Watson, Orlo Smith Knepper and David F. Sellers of the navy, and Mr. Roger Taylor, brother of the bride, and Dr. Frederick Fraley of Philadelphia, will be ushers. The color scheme is also to be pink and white, the bridesmaids to wear white net white, the bridesmaids to wear white net flowered with pink roses, and large tulle hats, trimmed in sweet peas. They will carry sweet peas. The newly married couple after their wedding trip will go to Newport for the summer, where Lieut. Gherardi has been assigned to the naval station.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smyser have sent out cards of invitation for the marri-age of their daughter. Grace Lynne McCulnesday evening, June 22, at 8 o'clock, Saint Thomas' Church, this city. The couple will be at home after August 1, 6612 7th street, Oak Lane, Philadelphia.

One of the prettiest weddings of the past week took place on Capitol Hill Wednesday evening, when Miss Bertha Emily Walter became the wife of Mr. William Clifton Phalen. The marriage was solemnized at 806 A street southeast, the new home of the couple, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends from this city and Gloucester, Mass. The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk and lace, her ingly gowned in white silk and lace, her only ornament being a pearl and diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Herbert C. Graves of this city, and Miss Lucy M. Graves of Alexandria. The groom is a well-known geologist of the younger set on the geological survey, and has made many friends during his short residence in Washington. He was attended by Mr. Eben Parsons of Boston, Mass., as best man.

Maj. W. C. Dix is in Philadelphia visiting his brother, Dr. Levin A. Dix.

Eldbrooke M. E. Church of Tenleytown was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednes-day evening, when Miss Elsie L. Paxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Paxton, organist of the above church, and a general favorite in Tenleytown, and Dr. Herbert Poole of Georgetown were married by Rev. H. E. R. Reek, formerly pastor of Eldbrooke, assisted by the Rev. Edwin H. Smith, the present pastor. The bride was daintily dressed in white silk mousseline and lace and carried a shown beau was daintly dressed in white slik mous-seline and lace, and carried a shower bou-quet of lilles, while the maid of honor, Miss Florence I. Thompson of Tenleytown, superintendent of Eldbrooke Sunday school, an intimate friend of the bride, wore blue silk mousseline and carried pink roses. The little flower girls, Miss Annabelle Pax-ton elser of the bride and the Misson ton, sister of the bride, and the Misses Mary and Sarah Chappell, cousins of the bride, wore white Swiss, with lace and rib-bons. Miss Annie Prosperi of Washington played the wedding march. Mr. J. Robert Paxton, brother of the bride, was best man. and Mr. F. D. Yowell and Mr. Wm. A. Volkman, a friend of the groom, were ushers. After the ceremony the invited guests adjourned to the residence of the bride's majourned to the residence of the bride's parents, on the corner of 41st and Des Molnes streets, where the young couple, with the immediate family and the ministers, received them. Dr. and Mrs. Poole will not go away until fall, and in the meantime they will reside with the parents of the bride. of the bride.

Last Thursday evening Miss A. Mace entertained a number of her friends at her sister's house, 417 D street northeast. After the refreshments were served games were played until a late hour. Those who were present were Miss Munking, Miss Goodspeed, Miss Louise, Mr. Holsir, Mr. Cramer, Mr. Mace, Mr. Spalching, Mr. and Mrs. Junghans, Mr. and Mrs. Harvery.
